GERMANS MEETING GREAT RESISTANCE

Cross Yser in Enormous Force and Press Forward Rapidly.

MEAGRE NEWS GIVEN.

Allies Believed to Have Lost Ten Thousand Men in Fighting During the Past Ten Days.

Paris, Oct., 26—Meagre advices from the front indicating today that the Germans, who have crossed the Yser in enormous force, are pressing slowly forward, encountering determined opposition.

The city is again alarmed over the German progress.

At other points in the north, notably to the east and northeast of Ypres and between Lille and Armentiere, the German offensive, while most energetic, is reported checked.

Re-enforcements have been sent to the north and the British warships continue to sweep the Germans with an enfilading fire wherever they try to push their lines back to the coast.

In consequence of the deadly nature of the shell fire from the coast the Germans have abandoned most of their positions along the main roadway connecting Ostend and Nieuport. They however, have batteries posted at all points where a hostile force could be landed from the sea, so no attempts has yet been made to try a flanking assault under cover of the guns of the warships.

Severe fighting was reported continuing today in the Woevre and Argonne regions. The Germans have brought up heavy batteries to destroy the French artillery posted to command the line of communications toward St. Mihiel through the Thiaucourt-Nousard road.

There is much complaint over the increasing meagreness of the official news from the front. Officers and men who are brought here wounded are sternly enjoined not to talk. The officials at military headquarters here add nothing to the official communiques that are wired from Bordeaux. But it is certain that the losses are increasing every day and that in the last ten days of fighting the allies must have had fully 10,000 in killed, wounded and prisoners each day.

Many of the crack Scotch and Irish regiments, whose place along the Somme have been taken by fresh troops and who are now fighting far in the north, have lost fully 40 per cent of their enlisted strength in the last ten days of fighting. While there is a melancholy satisfaction in the certainty that the Germans have also suffered much more severely, the appreciation of the terrible toll the war is now taking has had a melancholy effect on every one here.

POWER OF GERMAN GUNS

Claims They Could Bombard Dover From Calais.

Rotterdam, Oct., 26—Some light is now being thrown upon Germany's belief that they could bombard Dover from Calais.

In an article just published it is asserted that the carrying power of the German 42-centimeter howitzers is one-third more than the space between the English and French coasts at the points where they most nearly approach each other. It is added however, that the accuracy of their fire cannot be relied upon at that distance, 20,000 yards being given as the extreme range at which the giant guns can be regarded as weapons of precision.

The barrels of these monsters are twenty-four yards long. Each of their shots costs $12,000. When the "42" is ready to fire those who work it retire a distance of 400 yards and press an electric button. The explosion is such that it would deafen any one in the immediate vicinity.

Y., courthouse ever has known, the jury in whose hands the fate of Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman lay, disagreed and was discharged shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday. The Czar saved the life of Gen. Martos, who was captured in East Prussia, by threatening to shoot summarily one hundred German officers, who are prisoners, if the Russian general was harmed. A Petrograd dispatch to the Temps says the Czar's threat followed the announcement by the Wolff Agency, the German official bureau that Gen. Martos was to be executed to expiate Russian cruelties.

Germany's right to land troops in Canada, if possible, and thus secure at least a temporary foothold on the American continent, was upheld yesterday by Count Von Bernstorff, German Ambassador at Washington, who declared this would not be a violation of the Monroe doctrine. The Ambassador suggested that, as Canada was sending soldiers to Europe to fight against his country, the United States should not consider it in any sense an infringement on the Monroe doctrine if Germany should land an armed force on Canadian soil.

RUSSIA CHECKS GERMAN ADVANCE

Desperate Fighting Along River San and South of Przemysl.

ATTACK REAR GUARDS

Czar's Troops Encounter Austrian Column Descending From Carpathians and Disperse Them.

Petrograd, Oct 26—The war office today definitely announced that it had received information from the front that both the German advance in Poland and the Austrian advance in Galicia have been checked. It states that the Germans have been using the Austrians to cover their retreat.

The Russian center and right continue to advance, while the left wing is maintaining the new positions taken on the west bank of the San river.

The following official statement was issued here last nihgt:

"On October 23 and 24 the Russian troops inflicted several defeats on the German rear guards who were attempting to hold positions along the Rivers Ravka, Skernevka and Rvlka.

"Lovinz, Skierniewice and Hawa were taken by bayonet attacks.

"The Austrians in retreat with the Germans on the road near Radom, having received re-enforcements and profiting by the wooded and rolling character of the region offered stubborn resistance to our offensive, which developed into an engagement of considerable dimensions. At that place we captured prisoners, cannon and rapid-firers.

"Along the River San and south of Przemsyl desperate fighting continues. An attempt by the Austrians to turn the Russian left wing south of Przemsyl failed, the Austrians suffering great losses.

"An Austrian column, which descended the Carpathians near the town of Dolina (twenty-two miles from Stry), has been defeated and dispersed."

He fired the load striking young Lilly causing death within 20 minutes. The old hunter was so horrified that he tried to commit suicide but was prevented by a relative.

The coroner's jury held that the killing was an accident, but the boy's father insisted that the shooting was done purposely, and it was upon his insistence that the warrant was issued.

NATIONAL PRESS CLUB.

Two Alexandrians Are Members of Organization

With a membership including the names of the President of the United States, three members of his cabinet and many other men prominent in public life, the National Press Club records a wonderful growth in its new year book, which was made public today. Hundreds of authors and newspaper writers in all parts of the world are shown to be members of this organization. Two Alexandrians are members of the Club.

The book shows that despite the club's enormous growth during the six years of its existence, the purpose of its founders that it should be a press club in the true sense has never been lost sight of by its officers. Even President Wilson joined the club as a writer before his elevation to the highest office in the land. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Daniels joined as publishers of newspapers and Mr. Lane was admitted as a former newspaper reporter. There is no honorary membership roll and only the active members have any voice in the club management.

The club annual, which carries many views of the interior of the new home as well as the roof garden, contains an interesting account of unique entertainments that have been provided from time to time. At least two Presidents of the United States have selected the rooms of the National Press Club for heart-to heart talks such as are seldom made by chief executives. During the last day of his administration President Taft came to the club quarters to say goodbye and in doing so made what he called a "confession" of his short comings. President Wilson visited the new club rooms and told of his desire to be "humanized." President Roosevelt was a frequent caller. The statements attracted as much attention as any speeches made during the administration.

"The annual Hobby Nights at the Press Club are unique," says the annual. "Once a year distinguished men, each famed for some great specialty, are invited to appear before the members of the club. Each must ride his hobby. The event is presided over by a master of ceremonies of national reputation." Among the participants have been Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Speaker Champ Clark, Ambassador James Bryce, John Philip Sousa, and Gifford Pinchot.

Concerning the club quarters, the year book says in part: "The National Press Club has a new home, a more comfortable one in every way. It occupies the top floor and roof garden of a modern building just across the street from the treasury building, and looking down into the grounds of the White House. The new home is ideal because of its central location and accessibility and equipment.

"Passing the Golden Owl, which guards the entrance hall, the main feature of the club quarters is reached, the big lounging room or assembly the big lounging room or assembly hall with its easy chairs, window seats, its picturesque fireplace and every comfort. Four quaint gnomes sit cross-legged above the fireplace. They have been dubbed—'Old Subscriber', 'Interested', 'Pro Bono Publico,' and 'Veritas,' Beyond the assembly hall are the dining rooms and at the side is the library. The secretary's office is at the entrance and beyond the secretary's office are the cloak rooms, billiard rooms and card rooms. Then there is the roof garden where one may enjoy his dinner in the open, with a splendid panorama of the Virginia and Maryland hills spread before him."

Billy Sunday to Get $11,000.

Denver, Oct., 26.—Billy Sunday wound up his seven weeks' evangelistic campaign in a veritable shower of gold. Eleven thousand dollars was contributed to the evangelist at three meetings today, and it was announced that his campaign had resulted in the conversion of 11,750 persons. It is believed Sunday's total receipts will reach $15,000. In addition to this he has raised $17,000 for expenses of the campaign and $3,000 for charity.

Sunday left Denver for his home, at Winona Lake, Ind., where he will rest a week before starting his campaign in Des Moines, Iowa.

YOUNG WOMAN IS MURDERED

Hazel Macklin, Living Near South Bend, Ind., the Victim.

BODY FOUND IN VAULT

Strangled to Death With Piece of Her Underclothing Which Had Been Knotted About Her Head.

Souh Bend, Ind., Oc., 26—With scarcely any clues to help them detectives today were attempting to discover the identity of the slayer of pretty fifteen-year-old Hazel Macklin victim of one of the most brutal murders in the history of northern Indiana.

The body of the girl who disappeared August 15 was found in a vault at Island Park, a picnic resort one mile from the city, late yesterday. She had been strangled with a piece of her underclothing, which was knotted about her throat. Her clothing had been partly torn from her body and several scratches and scars showed she had battled desperately for her honor.

Matured beyond her age and unusually pretty, the Macklin girl was a favorite among the high school students, and at the Sunday school of the Westminister Presbyterian Church. For several years she had lived with her uncle, Charles C. Miller, her father and mother being dead.

Early in August she asked permission to go to work. The Millers inserted an advertisement in a newspaper for a position for her as nurse or maid for a farmer's wife. On August 19 a man who said he was a farmer living between South Bend and Mishawaka answered the ad by telephone. He said that his wife would employ Miss Macklin as a nurse, and directed that she meet him that evening at Spring Brook Park, between South Bend and Mishawaka, where he would appear with a buggy.

The girl boarded an interurban car at 7 o'clock in the evening for the meeting place, carrying a suit case full of clothes. When the Millers failed to hear from her searching parties were organized and the woods scoured but it was finally decided she had run away.

Lewis Hildreth, a farmer discovered the body while hunting for boards to repair a shanty.

John Slick, a farmhand, told the police today that he heard screams when he was passing the park on the night of August 19, but did not stop to investigate.

DEMANDS WIFE; LOCKED UP

Virginian Charged with Creating Disturbance in Harold Home.

Baltimore, Oct. 26—Accused of creating a disturbance, at the home of Mrs. Jennie Herold, 1614 St. Paul street Baltimore yesterday afternoon when he insisted that his wife was in the house, Henry B. Treakle, of Accomac county Virginia, was arrested and locked up at the Central Police Station. He was released on collateral for a hearing before Justice Supple.

Before going to the home of Mrs. Herold, Treakle appealed to Detective Captain Mc Govern to detail a detective with him to go to the house. On Friday Captain McGovern received a telegram from Treakle, with the appeal. "Send a firstclass detective to meet me at Union Station." Mcgovern did not send a detective to meet him nor did he allow a detective to accompany him yesterday when he went to Mrs. Herold's home.

It is said shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Treakle went to Mrs. Herold's home and demanded to see his wife. He was told that Mrs. Treakle was not there—that she had paid a brief visit about a month ago and that her whereabouts was not known to Mrs. Herold. From information the police received, Treakle became insistent and created a disturbance. The police were then called.

DR. DARST ACCEPTS CALL.

Richmond Rector Announcement to His Congregation.

Richmond, Oct. 26.—Rev. Thomas C. Darst, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church yesterday, at the morning services, announced his determination to accept the call and election of the bishopric of East Carolina.

Rev. Dr. Darst graduated at Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria, in 1902, and was sent by the bishop to the field around. Fairmount, W. Va. In his second year he worked in the Upperville district, Fauquier County, for two years.

On Saturday night Mr. Darst sent a telegram to the members of the committee which notified him of his election, in which he accepted the call.

Under the custom of the Episcopal Church, the election of Mr. Darst will have to be approved by every bishop and standing committee of each diocese in the United States. This will take about six weeks, so that it is hardly probable that Mr. Darst will leave St. James or Richmond much before the first of the year. His "Episcopal residence," or bishop's home, will be Wilmington. The Diocese of East Carolina is about as large as the Diocese of Virginia, embracing about 11,000 square miles of territory.

HELMS ACQUITTED.

"Unwritten Law" is Plea of Nansemond County Slayer.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 26.—Benjamin A. Helms was acquitted Saturday afternoon in the Nansemond County, Circuit Court on the charge of murdering Sidney Saunders. The case went to the jurors at 2:45 o'clock and within fifteen minutes they returned with a verdict of not guilty.

Helms was on trial for shooting to death, on the night of August 22, Sidney Saunders, the son of B. L. Saunders, bank president and wholesale grocer, claiming that young Saunders had persistently entered his home and despoiled it. The jurors seemed agreed on a verdict even before the argumnt started and appeared listless while the defense was closing. Th trial was exceeding sensational but the prosecution only established the fact of possible intimate relations between Saunders and the prisoner's wife.

FRANK FIGHTING FOR HIS LIFE

Case of Former Factory Superintendent Before Georgia Court.

PLEA OF HIS COUNSEL.

Will take Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court if Verdict of Lower Tribunal is Not Set Aside.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 26—The fight for the life of Leo M. Frank, young Atlanta factory superintendent, under sentence of death for alleged murder of fourteen-year-old Mary Phagan, an employe, on April 26, 1913 is before the Georgia supreme court today.

Two motions of Frank, whose conviction was based almost entirely on circumstantial evidence and the confession of alleged accomplice, and has attracted nation-wide interest, have been before the court.

Arguments were begun today upon the motion to set aside the conviction and death penalty because Frank was absent from the court room at Atanta when the jury brought in the verdict. Frank's attorneys claim this was a violation of his constitutional rights and if the motion to set aside the verdict is denied by this court will be the basis of an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey, or Atlanta, who conducted Frank's prosecution, will oppose Frank's motion, Dorsey presents affidavits from Judge Roan, the trial justice; the sheriff, and Frank's attorneys regarding the motion based on Frank's absence from the court room when the jury was brought in.

Attorneys Luther Rosser and Ruben Arnold, who have heretofore represented Frank, will not appear tomorrow because of an agreement not to raise the constitutional right made with Solicitor Dorsey shortly before the Frank verdict was brought in.

One of the main citations of the defense brief is from the case of Weeks vs. the United States reading "The efforts of the court and their officials to bring the guilty to punishment praiseworthy as they are, are not to be aided by the sacrifice of these great principls established by years of endeavor and suffering which have resulted in their embodiment in the fundamental law of the land.

The State's brief cites the case of Cawthen vs. the State of Georgia: "It would be trifling with the court to allow it to act upon a waiver thus made and then impeach its action on the ground that counsel had been guilty of an unauthorized act."

WORK OF BRITISH GUNS

Navy Kills and Wounds 4,000 Germans on Belgian Coast.

Dover via London, Oct., 26—The British fleet chose Trafalgar day (Oct. 21) to commence the bombardment of the Germans advancing along the Belgian coast. Firing started at 6 in the morning and continued without intermission for twelve hours.

The range of the ships' guns enabled them to shell the German trenches 3 miles inland, and they did great execution to the batteries placed amid the sand dunes. They destroyed a German bridging train, which had been assembled to force a crossing of the Yser, blew up an ammunition column, killed Gen. von Trip and all of his staff to the west of westende, and compelled the Germans to evacuate their position before Nieuport.

The firing was so rapid that some guns discharged fourteen projectiles per minute. At the end of the day the whole coast from Nieuport to the Westende, which had been strongly held by the enemy, was completely evacuated.

It is reported that on that day alone the Germans lost 4,000 killed and wounded.

ALEXANDRIA'S APPEAL

Annexation Case, Before Court of Appeals, Will Come up About Middle of November.

The long fight of the city of Alexandria to secure additional territory from the counties of Fairfax and Alexandria, which has lain dormant for the past year, will be revived early next month when the Supreme Court of Appeals meets in Richmond. The date for the opening of the court has been fixed for November 4th, and the suit of the city of Alexandria, which is an appeal, is scheduled as number five on the argument document. Owing to the fact that appeals in criminal cases and several privilege cases have precedence, it is not expected that the annexation case will be heard before the second week of the term which will be about November 15th.

A long list of well known lawyers will represent the three litigants before the Supreme Court. Alexandria City will have Comonwealth Attorney Samuel G. Brent, Corporation Attorney Samuel P. Fisher and John M. Johnson, as its attorneys. Alexandria County will be represented by Ex-Governor Andrew Jackson Montague, and his brother and Commonwealth Attorney Crandall Mackey. Fairfax County's lawyers will be C. Vernon Ford, commonwealth attorney and Moore, Barbour, Keith and McCandlish, of Fairfax Court House.

The case before the Supreme Court is an appeal from the decision of Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of Nelson County, who after an exhaustive hearing two years ago on the plea of Alexandria for additional territory decided against the, city.

KILLED BY BOMBS.

Children Killed in Streets of Warsaw by German Airmen.

London, Oct. 26.—"The German campaign with aeroplane bombs against Warsaw has been rather effective," says the Warsaw correspondent of Reuter's Telgram Company.

"On one day 44 persons were killed or wounded, and of these only nine were soldiers. On another day there were 62 casualties.

"Soldiers were injured at that time, but many children, who were drawn into the streets by curiosity were struck. Each aeroplane, apparently, has an equipment of five bombs, which were fired at intervals in the flight across the city.

"From all accounts the Germans for some time were under the delusion that they would be welcomed in Warsaw, and therefore started the dropping of bombs from aeroplanes comparatively late in the fighting.

"Relatively few prisoners have been taken in the fighting along the Vistula. This is explained by the mutual hatred of the contestants and their determination to come to mortal clutches.

"According to information gleaned from prisoners, aeroplane raids on London are impending."

Mr. Lawrence Edwin Remington, of Alexandria, and Miss Eva Earlona Smyth, of Alexandria, formerly of Culpeper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smyth, were married Saturday in Washington D. C. They left for Florida, where they will spend a few days. They will be at home after November 1st.

Miss Louise Ashton, of Ballston, is the guests of Misses Elizabeth Kite and Rebecca Kite, at their home in south Pitt street.

CALLS ON IRISHMEN TO FIGHT

Says They Must Not Let Others Do It For Them,

Belfast, Ireland, via London, Oct 26—Addressing a meeting of Irish volunteers yesterday, John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, said that when Irish government came into being the volunteers must be absolutely at the disposal of that government, and he declared that in spite of emigration Ireland would maintain her place as a fighting nation.

"Ireland's rights," said Mr. Redmond, "are not to be defended merely within the Irish shores. If the manhood of Ireland refused to strike a blow where real fighting is going on, thecountry would be covered with disgrace. Ireland would be humiliated if after the war it had to be admitted that the safety and liberties of Ireland had been guarded by the sacrifice of other men while Irishmen remained at home and took none of the risks."

Thirty five thousand men from all parts of Ireland have joined the army since the beginning of the war, Mr. Redmond added.

CALAMITY HOWLERS.

Robbed of any specific issues upon which to conduct the Congressional campaign, Republican orators, Republican ready-letter-writers and Republican propagandists have been directed to "howl calamity." Consequently, speeches are being prepared along this line, and the National RepublicanCongressional Committee has a staff of mimeograph operators hard at work turning out literature that waves the black flag of distress and solemnly declares that the country is going to the eternal bow-wows.

There was a time when the party of high protectionists and trust coddlers hoped that the passage of the Underwood Tariff bill would cause all industries to stop; but the tariff bill went into effect without a jar. Then the expectation was entertained that the new currency act would ruin the credi of he country and cause bankers to despair; but the act has gone into operation with bankers sounding its praises. Embarrassed by the comment of jingoists, the Wilson Mexican policy, the Republicans fondly anticipated, would prove the rock upon which Democracy would split and fall asunder; but the contrast between the devasting effects of European diplomacy and the-peaceful outcome of the Wilson Mexican policy has convinced the Republican campaigners that the less said in criticism of the Wilson foreign policies the better.

"Calamity howling," therefore which, in season and out, has been the method by which the Republican party has sought to discredit the Democrats, has been put to use again The fact that the business and financial elements of the country under a Democratic regime were able to weather the first shock of the European war with scarcely a single big failure, and that, with the active assistance and prompt initiative of the Administration the foreign trade, lost in the first weeks of the war, is being regained by leaps and bounds is being entirely ignored in the Republican propaganda. Ruin in large type, is spelled on every page of the G. O. P. pamphlets and sonorously sounded in every speech.

"FIRE PREVENTION DAY" IN RICHMOND.

Mayor Ainslie, of Richmond, will this week issue a proclamation fixing a "Fire Prevention Day.' This means that the Mayor will ask all citizens to clean out their closests, their fireplaces, their chimneys and all other crevices about the house, preparatory to the building of their fall and winter fires.

As is well known, many fires are caused by the accumulation of rubbish about the house. When the fires are started many chimneys are filled with accumulated soot and debris of the summer and from last winter. Many furnaces and stoves and fireplaces are filled with old paper and trash, which when the fires are started, cause conflagrations.

This removal of cast-aside stuff not only minimizes danger from fire, but it also cuts down disease.

The above should be a sufficient hint to Alexandrians. Fires and narrow escapes from serious conflagration have resulted in this city from neglect to take the precautions stated above.

CARDINAL WARRIORS READY

Will Play the Virginia A. C. for Championship.

The following football notice in the last paragraph of Saturdays Alexandria Gazette, viz: "The Virginia Athletics are composed of the best players in the city, and always put up a hard game," is interesting to the members of the Cardinal Football team who are willing to play the Virginians for the championship of Alexandria to prove that there are others in the dear old town who are still able to chase and handle the pig skin and give a good account of themselves in the course of the game. While the Cardinals do not claim to be the best in the city, the old war horses would be pleased to talk business with the Virginians manager concerning the claims made above. Either Messrs. Snowden, Cockrell, McBride, Hamilton, Trigger, Frank Cockrill McDermott, Shaner, Beam, Douglas, or any member or substitute of the former Cardinal Football team will cheerfully furnish any information desired.

Outclass Western Buds of Washington Yesterday.

The Va. A. C. added another victory to their credit yesterday by defeating the Western Buds of Washington. The Western Buds a team of the same weight as the Va. team were outclassed at every point of the game by the strong defensive and offensive play of the V. A. C.

The entire back field of the V. A. C. team played a splendid game but the front line was weak at times allowing the opposing team to get through their line on the defence and breaking up a number of V. A. C. plays.

Next Sunday the V. A. C. will play the strong Ft. Myer team at the ball park at 2:30 p. m.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. SUBSTITUTION.

The imitator is like the counterfeiter. He enters the field of business with a cheaper, lower grade article of merchandise, made as a substitute for the genuine, and generally sold at a cheaper price, arguing, as usual, that it is "just as good." The dealer is persuaded to handle it on glowing promises of enormous profits—much larger than the regular legitimate profit which is made on the genuine article. The imitator succeeds in playing upon man's natural avarice, places his goods on sale with the dealer, and instructs him to take advantage of the public by substituting the false article for the genuine at every opportunity. You can be pretty sure that whenever you ask for a well-known product and the dealer tells you he has something else that's just as good, or even better, the dealer is going to make a greater profit on that article than the one you call for, and in nine cases out of ten you will get a much inferior article.

Some buyers are easily imposed upon and this encourages the "get-rich-quick" schemers to increase their substitutions. This also discourages the legitimate manufacturer who is putting out articles of merchandise that represent honest value to the consumer. Where a man has devoted years of his life in perfecting an article that he knows cannot be excelled in quality; where he has spent thousands of dollars in advertising his goods; and where these goods have been giving universal satisfaction for a long time, great injury results by permitting substitution to rob him of his market and at the same time rob the consumer by selling him a doubtful article at practically the same price.

There is no law through which such evil practices can be stopped. The sole remedy is for the legitimate manufacturers to ask the public direct not to patronize dealers who try to substitute a different brand of goods for the kind wanted. All first class dealers know that it is poor business to try to substitute something else for the article wanted.

There is a Certain-teed dealer in your locality who will be pleased to give you further information about our goods and will quote you reasonable prices. If the goods are made by us, remember—we stand behind them.

TWO MORE BANDITS KILLED

Members of Gang Which Recently Robbed Sedro-Woolley Bank.

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 27.—Two more of the five bandits who robbed the First National Bank of Sedro-Woolley of $20,000 a week ago, killing a boy and wounding two citizens as they fled, were shot and killed by officers early last Saturday. One of the five was killed, and another wounded and captured last Thursday after a fight with a posse, one of whose members was slain.

Both victims of the officers' rifles today carried heavy money belts. One had $1,544 and the other $1,543.

More than $6,000 of the stolen money was recovered from the bandits who fell in last Thursday's fight.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

State Branch of International Order to Hold Convention in Richmond.

Richmond, Oct. 27.—The twentieth annual convention of the Virginia branch of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons will convene for a session of three days at Centenary Methodist Church tomorrow. Delegates and visitors from practically every section of the State are expected to attend the gathering. An interesting program for the convention has been arranged.

The opening session of the convention will be held on Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. S. C. Hatcher, D. D., will conduct the devotional service, and the address of welcome will be made by Mayor George Ainslie. Miss Edith Butler, of Warrenton, will respond to the address of welcome. Mrs. Sara G. Ingle, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. C. J. Kelloway, of Wilmington, N. C., will make brief speeches, telling of the work in their respective States. Reports of the city unions of Norfolk and of Staunton and announcements by the various committees will include the first session of the convention. At each session special musical programs will be rendered by the best local talent, under the direction of Mrs. Sallie Montgomery Brown.

State officers of the organization are president, Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, of Richmond; recording secretary, Miss Neeley, of Portsmouth; treasurer, Mrs. Robert W. Price, of Petersburg; central council member, Miss Margaret Roper, of Norfolk. These officers, with Mrs. George T. King, of Richmond; Mrs. J. N. Gibbs, of Mount Vernon, and Miss Florence Sheppard, Warrenton, form the executive committee. Pages who will be in charge at the convention are Miss Mary Custis, Miss Mabel Baker, Miss Mamie Holland, Miss Bessie Woody and Miss Elsie Jones. The public is inivted to attend all sessions of the convention.

CONSECRATION SERVICE.

Rev. William Cabell Brown to Become Bishop Coadjutor of Diocese.

Richmond, Oct. 26.—The most notable event of the immediate season in the religious life of the community will be the consecration of Rev. William Cabell Brown, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, which will take place on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at St. James Episcopal Church.

As is the case whenever possible, Dr. Brown selected the church in which he is to be consecrated, and his choice was St. James.

The various certificates and testimonials required during the consecration service will be presented and read by Bishop Lloyd, Rev. H. B. Lee, D. D., Rev. W. D. Smith, D. D., Rev. W. J. Morton, D. D., Rev. E. L. Goodwin, D. D., and Messrs. Rosewell Page and John M. Taylor. In addition to these active participants in the order of consecration, Rev. Thomas C. Darst, rector of the church and Bishop Elect of East Carolina, will be master of ceremonies.

It is also expected that Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph, Bishop of Southern Virginia, will be present and participate in the service. Many, if not all, of the Episcopal clergymen in Richmond and the vicinity will attend, in full vestments, and will take part in the ceremonial processional and recessional, both of which will be of a festival character, the choir, followed by the bishops and other clergy, marching around the body of the church while singing.

The choir will be augmented by many singers from other Episcopal churches, to such an extent that it will occupy all the choir stalls and a number of extra chairs within the chancel, so that clergymen who are not participants in the order of consecration will be seated just below the recess on the main floor.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient. "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.
